You are required to attend the following Lamar Theatre/Dance Productions:

Luna Gale

October 3-6
Studio Theatre

Permanent Collection

November 7-10
University Theatre

Fall and Recovery

November 22-24
University Theatre

Performances for the plays are Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at 7:30 pm and Sunday at 2:00 pm. The dance concert performs Friday and Saturday at 7:30 pm and Sunday at 2:00 pm. Tickets for Lamar students with a valid ID are $7 (limit one ticket per ID). Theatre and Dance majors receive one free ticket to each performance, and one additional if working on or backstage on the production. Tickets will go on sale the Monday prior to each production. Tickets may be purchased online at the LU Marketplace at www.lamar.edu/lutdtix. In order to receive the $7 ticket price, student tickets must be purchased online. Tickets may also be purchased in the lobby of the theatre one hour prior to the performance. It is highly recommended that tickets be purchased in advance, as shows do tend to sell out. Performances start promptly on time and if you arrive late, you will not be seated until intermission. Please arrive at least 15 minutes before the start of the performance.
Four volunteer ushers are also utilized for each performance. Ushers are required to arrive 45 minutes before the performance. You will be given a task by the house manager (tearing tickets, handing out programs, etc.) and will be required to stay 10 minutes following the performance to pick up any trash. In exchange for your time, you will be allowed to watch the production for free. You can sign up to be an usher starting the Monday before the production. Call the box office at (409) 880-2250 to sign up.

Attendance: Attendance for this course is mandatory. Class starts at the scheduled time and lateness will not be tolerated. You are allowed a total of three (3) absences for the semester FOR ANY REASON. Please use them wisely. Each subsequent absence after these three will result in your final grade being lowered one letter grade. Being late will be considered half an absence (i.e. late twice=one absence). YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR KEEPING TRACK OF YOUR ATTENDANCE.

Additional Information:

- Scenes/Monologues: All scenes and monologues must be fully memorized and ready to perform on the day specified. An assignment’s due date is its due date. No exceptions. Failure to accurately and completely memorize an assignment will affect the final grade.
- Physical Contact: Due to the nature of this course, it may be necessary to be in close physical contact with the professor or fellow students. If you have a problem with this, it is your responsibility to alert the professor as soon as possible. If you do not alert the professor, it will be assumed you are comfortable with the physical nature of the course. Likewise, if you have any medical conditions, injuries or physical limitations that will hinder you from fully participating in class, please alert the professor to those immediately.
- It is highly recommended that students have a filled water bottle with them during class. No other food or drink will be allowed. Cell phones must be silenced during class. If your cell phone goes off during class, it will be considered as one of your lates.
- Show/rehearsal commitments are NOT acceptable excuses for not having work ready.
- Facebook is NOT an appropriate means of communication for class-related issues. I will be happy to be your Facebook friend, but please use email or phone for anything pertaining to class. Any such messages/posts on Facebook will be disregarded.

COURSE EVALUATIONS:

Because I value your feedback and want to be sure the class best meets your needs, I encourage you to take advantage of online end-of-semester course evaluations.

Evaluation

 ASSIGNMENTS:

1-Three (3) response papers of mainstage productions and dance concert (150 points each).
2-Monologue (100 points)
3- Midterm (100 points)
4-Final performance (250 points)
5-In class participation (100 points).

Grades are assessed on the following scale:
Production Response Papers

Students are required to see the three mainstage productions this semester and write a 2-3 page response paper on each, focusing on the acting in the production, NOT A SYNOPSIS. The paper should be double-spaced, Times New Roman font (12 pt.) with maximum 1 inch margins. LATE WORK WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED!

In Class Mid Term Performance

Students will perform a brief (1-2 minute) scene from one of the required plays. Students must have fully realized objectives, obstacles, tactics, and given circumstances. The scene must be fully memorized. Partners and scenes will be assigned by the professor.

In Class Final Performance

Students will perform a group scene from one of the required plays. The scene must be fully memorized. The scene must be rehearsed (rehearsal time outside of class is mandatory), with fully realized objectives, obstacles, tactics, and given circumstances. Scene and partners will be assigned by the professor.

Participation

10% of your grade will be based on participation. It is not enough to be physically present in the room. You must try and put forth an effort at every class. Don't worry about right or wrong, success or failure. Most of the work we will be doing is experiential and you must put forth 100% effort in order to get the full extent of what the techniques have to offer. If you are half-hearted in your attempts you will not only affect the morale of your fellow students, your grade will also suffer

Institutional Policies

Academic Honesty Policy

Lamar University expects all students to engage in academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action.

The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials.

All persons involved in academic dishonesty will be disciplined in accordance with University regulations and procedures. Discipline may include failure of the assignment and/or course up to suspension or expulsion from the university. The penalty may vary by instructor.
Course Drop Policy

Students may drop a course and receive a grade of "Q" during the penalty-free period of the semester or session. For drops after this penalty-free period, grades are recorded as "Q" or "F," indicating the student was passing or failing at the time of the drop. A grade of "Q" may not be assigned unless an official drop has been processed through the Records Office. Students may drop a course online up to the census day by logging into Self-Service Banner. After the census day, courses must be dropped through the Records Office. For additional help, contact the academic advisor or the Records Office at registration@lamar.edu. Students may not drop a course during the last 20 percent of the term. Students should check the academic calendar at https://www.lamar.edu/academic-calendar for specific dates.
