Catalog Description

2. To help the student develop routine, discipline, and work ethic

3. To help the student appreciate the challenges of acting.

4. To help the student grow as an artist and an individual.

Outcomes
Upon successful completion of the course, the student will:

1. Have further developed their basic academic skills and ability to multi-task.

2. Have better developed their routine, discipline, and work ethic
3. Better appreciate the challenges of acting.

4. Have grown as an artist and an individual.

Course Materials

The Stanislavsky System, Sonia Moore.

The Glass Menagerie, Tennessee Williams.

Course Policies

1. No food or drink in the classroom except water in a capped bottle.

2. Turn all cell phones off for the duration of the class period.

3. You are expected to be in class and ready to work when class starts at 11:10AM. This includes being dressed in proper attire as required by the instructor.

4. You are allowed TWO ABSENCES for the semester, excused or otherwise. After this point, each absence lowers your grade in the course half a letter grade. After a fifth absence, the instructor may advise you to drop the course, regardless of where we are in the semester.

5. Two lates count as absence. Habitual lateness is grounds for removal from the course. If you are running late, please text the instructor to let them know you are on your way. Depending on the day, the classroom may be locked. If this is the case and you arrive late, do not knock; you will be counted absent for this day's class.

6. Positive attitude, focus, and good energy are key to this class. Anyone who arrives with a bad attitude, is disinterested or distracted or not supportive of their classmates may be asked to leave and counted absent for that class day. If the behavior persists, the student may be removed from the course.

Institutional Policies

Academic Honesty Policy

Lamar University expects all students to engage in academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action.

The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials.

All persons involved in academic dishonesty will be disciplined in accordance with University regulations and procedures. Discipline may include failure of the assignment and/or course up to suspension or expulsion from the university. The penalty may vary by instructor.

Additional information is available on the Academic Policy website (https://students.lamar.edu/academic-support/academic-policies.html).

Course Drop Policy

Students may drop a course and receive a grade of "Q" during the penalty-free period of the semester or session. For drops after this penalty-free period, grades are recorded as "Q" or "F," indicating the student was passing or failing at the time of the drop. A grade of "Q" may not be assigned unless an official drop has been processed through the Records Office. Students may drop a course online up to the census day by logging into Self-Service Banner. After the census day, courses must be dropped through the Records Office. For additional help, contact the academic advisor or the Records Office at registration@lamar.edu. Students may not drop a course during the last 20 percent of the term. Students should check the academic calendar at https://www.lamar.edu/academic-calendar for specific dates.

Students with Disability Policy

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communication building, room 105. Office staff collaborate with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g. mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations.

If you are registered with the DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

Additional information is available at the DRC website (http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/).

COVID-19 Statement

Lamar University returns to the 2021-2022 academic year after a pandemic that lasted more than 15 months. We will open for business without requirements for masks, vaccination requirements, or social distancing, as announced by Governor Abbott on July 29. However, for the health and safety of all concerned we encourage all faculty, staff, and students to take advantage of the free vaccines (available throughout the region and at the Student Health Center) as soon as possible. We strongly recommend that everyone continue to practice good personal hygiene practices including regular handwashing and/or use of hand sanitizing products when soap and water are not readily available. Please show respect to those who choose to practice social distancing measures and wear face coverings.

Everyone is asked to continue to self-screen for any signs or symptoms of COVID-19. Please seek medical attention if you begin to feel ill. Members of the Lamar community share significant and unrelenting responsibilities. As members of the larger world community, we have not only the opportunity but the duty to develop and to exhibit a sense of social responsibility. We are responsible for each other and each of us must do what we can to protect our Lamar family and to remember that we have especially vulnerable populations among us (i.e., Lamar community members with chronic illnesses or disabilities, children, and factors that predispose many to respiratory ailments). As we look out for one another, our choices are of the utmost importance.

Should state or federal guidelines change, we will provide updates as soon as practicable.
