Catalog Description

Voice work is for everyone. This course is designed to help the actor expand their resonance, breathing, and vocal range. It is also focused on helping the actor find a clear, neutral sound as a point of departure. The focus of our course content is Shakespeare; this is the main Shakespearean acting course offered in the department.

Course Policies

Course Policies

All assigned readings must be read by the day they are assigned. Failure to do so will result in the lowering of the students’ participation grade.

Attendance in class is mandatory. You may be granted an excused absence, but you should NEVER miss class unless it is an emergency. Do not assume your absence will be excused. Always contact the professor as soon as possible regarding an absence.

More than 2 unexcused absences will result in an automatic lowering of the students’ letter grade by one grade level.

More than 4 unexcused absences will result in removal from the course or failing of the course, depending on the time in the semester.

Numerous excused absences may result in removal from the course or failure of the course. This is a studio class, so work cannot be made up at other times.

To be on time is to be late. Students should arrive AT LEAST five minutes before the starting class time and be prepared to start their work immediately at the start of class.

Seeing ‘cold’ work is never interesting. Come to class prepared to warmup, be engaging, and a good listener.

I highly discourage you from planning to take an extra day off around Spring Break/ Department Shows. I take no exception on these days and often have work due on them.

Your attitude is everything. If you come to class not willing to work, not focused, trying to ‘hide’ amongst your classmates, or being unprepared/ not dressed properly, you may be asked to leave class, and this will count as an unexcused absence.

Course Evaluations:

Because I value your feedback and want to be sure the class best meets your needs, I encourage you to take advantage of online end-of-semester course evaluations.

I also encourage you to meet with me outside of class (office hours or by appointment) to discuss your progress on a regular basis.

Disruptive Behavior Policy: All cell phones, ipods, and other electronic devices must be turned OFF at the beginning of class. If you use any electronic devices for purposes not pertaining to class (e.g. text messaging, Facebook, etc), you will be given a warning. Repeated instances will result in dismissal from the class.

There is no food or drink allowed in the classroom, except for water in a capped bottle.

Different students are likely to have different issues that interest them, different understandings of class materials, and different opinions on a wide range of topics. It is important to the environment of this class that we are able to speak honestly and to disagree openly. It is essential, however, that we do so from a position of respect for each other. Any student who is disrespectful to the instructor, fellow students, or guests will be given a warning. Repeated instances will result in dismissal from the class.
“Disruptive Behavior” generally means conduct that materially and substantially interferes with or obstructs the teaching or learning process in the context of the classroom. Besides the above, disruptive behavior also includes conduct that distracts others in a manner that interferes with instructional activities or fails to adhere to an instructor’s classroom rules, such as: excessive tardies, cell phones ringing in class, talking during lectures, sleeping, and reading materials other than those covered in class that day.

✔ Evaluation

You are expected to choose one Shakespearean sonnet, which you will memorize and perform at the beginning and end of the semester.

You are expected to memorize and stage the scene appropriately, and there will be at least two showings of the scene.

집 Institutional Policies

Academic Honesty Policy

Lamar University expects all students to engage in academic pursuits in a manner that is above reproach. Students are expected to maintain complete honesty and integrity in their academic experiences both in and out of the classroom. Any student found guilty of dishonesty in any phase of academic work will be subject to disciplinary action.

The University and its official representatives may initiate disciplinary proceedings against a student accused of any form of academic dishonesty including, but not limited to, cheating on an examination or other academic work which is to be submitted, plagiarism, collusion, and the abuse of resource materials.

All persons involved in academic dishonesty will be disciplined in accordance with University regulations and procedures. Discipline may include failure of the assignment and/or course up to suspension or expulsion from the university. The penalty may vary by instructor.

Additional information is available on the Academic Policy website (https://students.lamar.edu/academic-support/academic-policies.html).

Course Drop Policy
Students may drop a course and receive a grade of “Q” during the penalty-free period of the semester or session. For drops after this penalty-free period, grades are recorded as “Q” or “F,” indicating the student was passing or failing at the time of the drop. A grade of “Q” may not be assigned unless an official drop has been processed through the Records Office. Students may drop a course online up to the census day by logging into Self-Service Banner. After the census day, courses must be dropped through the Records Office. For additional help, contact the academic advisor or the Records Office at registration@lamar.edu. Students may not drop a course during the last 20 percent of the term. Students should check the academic calendar at https://www.lamar.edu/academic-calendar for specific dates.

Students with Disability Policy

Lamar University is committed to providing equitable access to learning opportunities for all students. The Disability Resource Center (DRC) is located in the Communication building, room 105. Office staff collaborate with students who have disabilities to provide and/or arrange reasonable accommodations.

If you have, or think you may have, a disability (e.g. mental health, attentional, learning, chronic health, sensory, or physical), please contact the DRC at 409-880-8347 or drc@lamar.edu to arrange a confidential appointment with the Director of the DRC to explore possible options regarding equitable access and reasonable accommodations.

If you are registered with the DRC and have a current letter requesting reasonable accommodations, we encourage you to contact your instructor early in the semester to review how the accommodations will be applied in the course.

Additional information is available at the DRC website (http://www.lamar.edu/disability-resource-center/).
